THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful It is In Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charco is the safest and most efficient disinfec-tant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose, Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onlons and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion; it whitens the teeth, and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Bruart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal and other harmless antiseptics, in tablet form, or rather in the form of large, pleasant-tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary great beneft.

A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some rense a patent preparathough in some sense a patent propara-tion yet I believe I got more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tab-

A Falling Off of Ten Thousand in Vote for Aycock Four Years Ago.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., November 9.—The latest advices from the Eighth Congressional Datrict, the only district in which there is any doubt of the election of there is any doubt of the election of Democratic congressman, are to the effect that Blackburn claims he has defeated Newland (Democrat) by over 1,000. In Surry county Blackburn has a majority of 200, but it is probable two precincts will be thrown out and eliminate this. Watagua and Ashe give 350 cach majority for Blackburn. Democratic State Chairman Simmons says an official count will be necessary to determine who is elected. Newland has a majority of about 1,400 in Rowan, and the only hope is that this will overcome Republican minjorities in other counties.

Democratic congressmen are certainly elected in the other nine districts, the Chairman Simmons said to-night that he estimates the Democratic majority for Glenn in the State is upwards of 50,000 against 69,000 for Aycock four years ago. Topouts have been received from 72 counties, and these, with estimated majorities from the other twenty-five, show 60,890 Democratic majority. There are nineteen counties that show Republican majorities aggregating 6,225.

The Democratic majorities aggregate 57,785.

SALISBURY, N. C., Nov. 9.—The keenest interest centres to-night in the congressional contest in the Eighth district.
Cof. John S. Henderson, Democratic chairman of the district, states that it is exceedingly difficult to get any authentic information from Ashe, Surry and other mountain counties. At best, the vote for Newland, Democrat, and Blackburn, Republican, will be very close. The present figures show a difference of only three votes. Chairman Henderson claims that Newland is elected, but will not officially announce same until the ballots are officially counted. Blackburn's manager is without information in the matter. LANSDOWNE IS AGAINST WAR

Makes Strong Plea for Peace at Lord Mayor's Banquet.

REFERS TO MR. ROOSEVELT

Says the President Has Invited Britain to Second Hague Conference.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Nov. 9 .- Lord Lansdowns, in the absence of Premier Balfour, at the historic Lord Mayor's banquet held tonight, made a strong plea for peace and arbitration on behalf of the British government. Lord Lansdowne pointed out to a large and rather unsympathetic audience that arbitration was the only way in which the North Sea dispute with Russia could have been equitably settled and almost in the same breath drew a vivid picture of the horrors of the struggle now proceeding in the Far East. Between the lines of every reference the foreign minister made to the Russo-Japanese war was an urgent plea, amounting almost to a demand, that it might be set-tled by arbitration. It was a carefully prepared statement made before what is prepared statement made before what is considered the most representative gathering of leading men of Great Britain. As such, it was generally interpreted as a bolder bid for intervention than has yet emanated from any neutral power. America was writ large in this speech, for which Great Britain has been waiting for many days. ing for many days.

Mr. Hay Is Quoted.

Mr. Hay Is Quoted.

The foreign minister prefaced all his remarks by saying:

"That great statesman. John Hay, recently remarked that war, was the most futile and fallacious of human foilles."

Then came an impassioned review of the North Sea affair. Although Lord Lansdowne was unable to announce the signing of the convention, he emphatically confirmed statements made in these dispatches, namely, that Great Britain had found "no difficulty in arriving at a solution in principle of the dispute," and only supplemented what is already known by the statement that Russia has guaranteed the punishment of any other officers in addition to those already detached from Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron who might be proved to have been implicated. been implicated.

By most of his hearers, who to-night had their first opportunity of hearing the foreign officer's views, and who hitherto had based their ideas on Mr. Baltour's much criticised Southampton speech and belligerent editorial articles in the newspapers. Lord Lansdowne's utterances were resarded almost as a plea for Russia. A dead silence greeted him as, after pointing out that the two, governments in good faith believed, in contradictory statements of facts, he asked:

"Could we have done better than get full apology and compensation and leave the question of facts to an international tribunal with a guarantee of punishment of any who may be found guilty?"

HOW COLDS ARE CONTRACTED AND PROPER TREATMENT.

An acute catarrh-that is, a cold—is always the result of undue exposure to low temperatures. The rapid cooling of the surface, when not balanced by proper reaction, produces congestion and inflammation of the nasal and bronchial membranes. Obviously such an allment is not communicable, in the ordinary sense, from one individual to another. As the slightest "cold" predisposes the individual to attacks of the most severe and dangerous catarrhal affections, the necessity for its quick cure need not be enforced. These facis emphasize the necessity of extraordinary precautionary measures against the ordinary cold. Everyone cannot change his climate at will, but may make the most of what ha has at home, viz., take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. It not only cures a cold quickly, but counteracts any tendency of the cold to result in pneumonia. This fact has been fully proven during the epidemics of colds and grip of the past few years. No case of either of those diseases having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used has ever heen reported to the manufacturers, and thousands of bottless of it are sold every day, which shows conclusively that it is not only the best and quickest cure for colds, but a certain preventive of that dangerous disease, pneumonia. For sale by all druggists. Richmonders in New York. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CATARRH Cannot be cured by Sprays or other Local Applications, lous causes deep-seated in the blood. Blood Taint and Lowered Vitality are the conditions which give rise to Catarrh and sprays, washes, smoking prep-arations or other local remedies cannot do more than temporarily relieve the symptoms and can never reach and cure the disease itself. Many doctors direct their efforts to relieving the mere symptoms of Catarrh, treating it as a strictly local disease and totally losing sight of the real causes that underlie the outward signs of this malady. Catarrh, if not promptly arrested and cured, may cause consumption or lead to very serious diseases of the digestive organs.

Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) cures Catarrh quickly, thoroughly and permanently. Its curative properties act directly on the blood, driving out the poison, purifying and strengthening the whole system. It relieves im-mediately the disgusting symptoms of Catarrh, such as hawking, spitting, nose bleeding, ringing in the ears, the dropping of catarrhal matter into the throat, sick stomach, etc. It absolutely and permanently cures all forms of Catarrh—Catarrh of the Nose, Ear, Throat, Eyes, Lungs, Stomach, Liver or Kidneys. If you have any of the symptoms of Catarrh, don't waste time and money on worthless local remedies, but get B. B. H.—the medicine that is guaranteed to cure.

Botanio Blood Balm B. B. B. Botanio Bicod Baim (B. B. B.) is sold by all druggists. Price $1.00 per large bottle. If taken in sufficient quantity according to directions on label and not cured, money is refunded. Write for free book containing valuable med-loal advice and the history of many remarkable cures made by B. B. B.
